The Spring Hill Gun Club had their closing shooting match of the season yesterday afternoon.

Nineteen persons were before the police court yesterday morning for being drunk the day before.

The work-house was full on circus day, forty prisoners being locked up. The police court did a brisk business in consequence yesterday morning.

"The Frequency of Suicide," will be the theme of Mr. Dardis' discourse at the Christian Church to-morrow night. A cordial invitation to all.

Several couples came in to see the circus Thursday morning, who, while waiting for the parade, concluded to put in the time by getting married.

The new store recently erected on Second street by Miss Hulie Herndon is about completed and will be occupied next week by Mr. John W. Payne as a dry goods and notion store.

Mr. Dan. Meagher, sr., has resigned the position of Superintendent of the old Water Works and Mr. John D. Griffin has been appointed to the position.

In the crowd at the circus tent Thursday several gentlemen had their pockets picked. Mr. Faintley Johnson, of Woodford, lost a pocket-book containing $25 and some valuable papers, Mr. S. F. J. Trabue and Mr. Jerry Tracy also lost their pocket-books.

The marriage of the Rev. Edwin A. Penlek and Miss May Shipman will take place in the Church of the Ascension Wednesday evening, the 22d inst., at 8 o'clock. No cards. The friends of both parties are cordially invited.

The ceremony will be performed by Bishop T. U. Dudley, assisted by Bishop Penlek.

Mr. Editor:
Please allow me to say a few words, as I feel it my duty as a correspondent to correct a little mistake I saw in Saturday's paper. It was reported that a man by the name of Howland induced Mr. and Mrs. N. Goins to bring the medium to their house to know if their son, Mr. Jerry Tracy, was going to Louisville on business and to visit the Lexington, when some of her friends in Frankfort gave her the lady's address and asked her to go to see her for them and make some arrangements for her to come to Frankfort. When the lady found out Mr. Tracy lived in the country she said, "Can I go to your house?" "I guess you can," was the reply." Not thinking any one would make any harm out of it and tell five hundred lies about it. I attended one of the circles myself and everything went off nicely. If people did not want to go they could have stayed away without being in theatre in town or a circus. If you want to save your money stay at home, for some would not believe what their own eyes beheld.

THE GREATSHOW.

Pleasure, Fun and Instructions
Under many Tents.

Strange Men and Women from all lands—Jumbo and the White
Elephant—A Circus of Immense
Proportions—A Bewildering Array of Performers—Exciting Races.

Barnum's great show and Jumbo were here and drew one of the largest crowds ever in the city on Thursday. It was the best, the cleanest, and the most immense affair of the kind ever exhibited here. Having been given an opportunity to view it in all its details, we can truly say it was a highly moral exhibition. As is usual by the case with Barnum, Bailey & Hutchinson's show, the visitor had to make his way through three or four tents before he reached the one in which the circus proper was to be seen. This experience is made pleasant, in passing through these various annexes the visitor may behold the numerous curios and animals. Within one of the tents stood the sacred white elephant. His majesty held a sort of levee nearer the entrance than where good-natured, colossal Jumbo entertained the children and the ladies. Buddhist priests surrounded his sacred nuggety rugs of rich texture and brilliant hue lay scattered around, while to the left the gilded image of the Buddha sat in silent splendor. This brute is a disappointment at first sight. He is not white. But on close examination his hide is of a light dove color, and as soft as silk. His muscle is pink, and he has pink spots on and behind the ears. Compared with the other elephants he looks as if of a noble breed, and seems to justify the explanation of his attendant: "He's an aristocrat!" He certainly looks as if he was not a stranger to soap and water, while the others appear like huge rascals who love to revel in dirt. But it is Jumbo, after all, that reigns supreme in the loves of ladies and children. There is no disappointment about him. Especially pleasant to all is his good nature.

Then, as the visitor passed around the tent, the largest and greatest ethnological exhibition ever seen in a circus was viewed. Something pleasant and instructive to look at. The various tribes of Indians, Burmese, Todas, Syrians, Hindoos, Nauchi girls of real beauty, Zulus, Chang the Chl-

PIANOS AND ORGANS! --- EASY TERMS!

In buying a Piano or Organ many persons have the idea that they must pay all cash. There are thousands of families who have an income of fifty to one hundred dollars per month, who can easily spare from five to ten dollars of it and scarcely miss it. To all such we would say, do not wait to lay up enough to pay for an instrument before buying, but see or write us at once for our terms. We will satisfy you that we are giving easier terms than any Music House in the United States.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Entered at the post-office at Frankfort, Kentucky
as second class mailable matter.

GEORGE A. LEWIS,
Editor and Publisher.
FRANKFORT, OCTOBER 18, 1884.

Frankfort contributed several visiting statesmen to superintend the election in Ohio Tuesday.

A protracted meeting is in progress at Buck Run Baptist Church in this county. Rev. Dr. J. M. Lewis, of this city, is assisting the pastor.

Mr. H. L. Tyler, of the Cedar Run neighborhood, brought to this office on Thursday a bunch of ripe and half ripe blackberries, second crop of this year, grown wild on the farm of Mr. W. A. Moore.

Judge George R. Bacon, of Peck's Mill, wishes us to announce "kinder easy" that he is going to be a candidate for next County Clerk of this county. The Judge is a hustler and will make it hot for those already on the track.

One of our indignant workingmen denounced the Italian laborers, who have come to this city to work on the water works, thusly: "They are all negroes from Gypsy; every one of them has brought a monkey and hand organ with him, and they will live off of one apple and a banana for a week."

An excursion train will be run from this city to the Louisville Exposition on Thursday next, the train leaving here at 8:45 in the morning, and will leave the Exposition platform at 10:45 at night, giving all who go a chance to see the fireworks. The fare for the round trip, including admission to the Exposition, will only be $1.00.

Roll of honor for Miss Stella Gobier's room, for week ending Oct. 10th: Amélie Abrahams, Mamie Dryden, Lotte Evans, Flossie Hughes, Sadie Grant, Linda Magill, Eva Macklin, Carrie Moyers, Frances Wallace, John Bull, Lindsey Blayney, Drake Bailey.

Mr. R. W. Kline, of Shreveport, Louisiana, and Miss Rebecca Taylor, second daughter of Hon. E. H. Taylor, Jr., were married at the residence of the bride's father, on Second street, Wednesday afternoon. Rev. Dr. Morris Evans, of Millersburg, officiating. The happy couple left on the 23rd train for their future home in Shreveport.

Our unfortunate neighbor, Lawrenceburg, was again visited by fire on Tuesday night, five of the best business houses in the place being consumed. They were occupied by the Anderson News office, Portwood's saloon, H. S. Carl's furniture store, Judge John H. Cain's insurance office, T. E. Wells' hardware store, Hickman & Co.'s dry goods store. Loss $30,000, with $22,000 insurance.

Chicken thieves have been busy on the North Side of the city for several weeks past. The coops of Mr. R. K. McTire, Capt. B. C. Milam, Judge W. P. D. Bush, Mr. L. A. Thomas, and Mrs. M. J. Gaines have been visited, and nearly emptied. In some instances, fresh meat, butter and other articles of food have been carried off. It is thought most of the thefts have been committed early in the morning, after the night police go off duty.

A Post of the Grand Army of the Republic was organized in this city on Saturday evening with 22 charter members, Capt. T. J. Jack, of Covington, acting as mustering officer. It was named Albert G. Bacon Post, in honor of Capt. Bacon, of the Sixth Kentucky Cavalry, the first Frankfort boy who fell on the Union side in the late war. The following officers were elected:

Commander—Gen. D. W. Lindsey.
Senior Vice Commander—V. Berberich.

Junior Vice Commander—T. J. Hutchinson.

Adjutant—Judge W. H. Sned.
Quartermaster—Jacob Sower.
Chaplain—C. C. Furr.

Surgeon—Dr. J. G. Hatchett.
Officer of the Day—A. B. Norwood.
Officer of the Guard—John Dean.

Sergeant Major—H. J. Hyde.
Inside Sentinel—John W. Cox.
Outside Sentinel—John B. Dryden.

The pipe for the water mains is being distributed in South Frankfort.

Mr. H. F. Hillenmeyer, the reliable Lexington nurseryman, advertises his full stock of trees in this issue.

Cards are out for the wedding of Mr. Chas. F. Exum, of this city, and Miss Katharine Moore, of Winchester, on the 28th inst.

During the jamb on the streets Thursday morning a negro baby in a baby buggy came near being run over by a young man in a buggy, on St. Clair street. The buggy was upset and the child thrown out, but was not seriously injured.

The handsome new Colored School building is about completed and the school will be opened on the first Monday in November. The Board of School Trustees have selected the following colored citizens as an Advisory Board of Trustees for the school: Henry Pendleton, Jesse Hoeker, W. B. Luckett, Henry Weisiger, sr., and Merritt Madison.

A number of Italian laborers arrived in this city Saturday afternoon for the purpose of going to work on the new Water Works. About nine o'clock that night a party of about a hundred persons, claiming to represent the laboring men of this city, collected, marched down to the boarding houses of the Italians, just outside the city on the Lewis Ferry pike, and notified them to leave. It is said they promised to do so if given until the next morning. The authorities heard of the matter, assured the Italians of protection should they remain, and warrants were sworn out against J. T. Larkin, Andrew Griffin, and Walter Pearce for participating in the mob, but after an examining trial all were discharged.

Monday the Italians were set to work by the Water Company digging up the twelve inch water main laid between this city and the new reservoir at Cedar Cove.

Frederick (Md.) Daily Times.

NEW ORLEANS MINSTRELS. The New Orleans Minstrels were greeted with a hearty ovation by a large audience at the City Hall last night. The company, one and all, are gentlemen on and off the stage, and deserve patronage wherever they may appear. Every feature of the great show was first-class, and from the time the curtain rose until the final curtain the company was greeted with an almost continual round of applause. The jokes were fresh, new and witty, the singing splendid, the instrumental music, especially the gold band, charming, the champion military clog, arranging the gaitors, and really brilliant work of the vocalists, receiving special commendation. The entertainers, and the participants, by the three Gorham's, brimming over with fun which fairly brought down the house. When they come this way again we bespeak for them an audience that will fill the City Hall to its fullest capacity.

At the Opera House, Tuesday, October 21.

Personal

M. L. B. Kohne and wife, of Lima, Ohio, are visiting relatives in this city.

Miss Herminia Combs, of Illinois, Missouri, is visiting relatives in this city.

Mrs. Jerome and Fannie Hendrick left Monday morning for a visit of several weeks to New York.

John D. Woods has rented the Herndon residence on Second street and removed his family to this city.

Mrs. Hallie Herndon has broken up her household and will make her home with her sister, Mrs. John Morgan, in Lexington.

Mr. John Cox, who has been visiting his parents in this county for several months, left Monday for his home in Lagarto, Texas.

Mrs. Fannie Allen and daughter, Mrs. Carrie Bell, of this county, left Monday afternoon for a visit to Live Oak county, Texas.

Mr. A. G. Morris and wife, who have been visiting relatives in this city, left Saturday morning for their home in Indianapolis.

Mr. Stephen Keller, of Cincinnati, who has been visiting his daughter, Mrs. Phil. Schert and Mrs. V. Berberich, returned home Monday.

Mr. Richard Godson, of Midway, a young gentleman well known in this city, came down Saturday, was examined by the Judges of the Court of Appeals, and received license to practice law.

FRANKFORT ROUNDABOUT.

Cedar Run.

Bud Sauford has gone to Louisville, but Parker Little has returned from a week's visit to Louisville.

Mrs. Lizzie Tyler, of Quality Corner, is visiting her son, H. L. Tyler.

Judy G. R. Bacon, of Peck's Mill, spent Tuesday with Q. Cumber.

Mrs. James Perkins, of Jessamine, spent several days on Cedar Run.

Mrs. Jennie Horn, of Jett, spent several days with her mother, Mrs. Lizzie Johnson.

Misses Minnie Thompson, Annie Cardwell, Addie Morris visited Cedar Run last week.

W. A. Moore visited his son, S. P. Moore, in Louisville, last week and took in the Exposition.

Mrs. Lizzie Johnson is very much disposed. She has gone to her daughter's, Mrs. Horns, at Jett Station.

Mrs. Sue Murphy, of Jessamine county, made a short visit to her daughter, Mrs. Alfred Conney, this week.

It appears that Nix got too much spirit. We are somewhat surprised that a man as temperate as Nix was a few weeks since, when he was so afraid of a cumber, to try to use a dollar worth of it in one night especially when the spirits were low, but we represent them to be. Try twenty-five cents' worth next time, Nix.

Q. CUMBER.

Antioch.

Jumbo and Barnum will be the rage. Mr. John Bryant, of Tiger, was over last Sunday visiting friends.

Mr. Matt Carlson and wife, of Bailey Hill, are up visiting relatives this week.

Mr. Alonzo Wallace visited friends near Pleasant Ridge Saturday and Sunday.

Mr. J. W. Sonomes and lady visited Mr. Dick Moore and family the first of the week.

Antioch sent quite a delegation to Pleasant Ridge last Sunday. Five young ladies with their beaux.

The toll gate on the Piney Branch like never before. Mr. Frank Browner's Mr. Bledsoe keeper.

Mr. B. F. Caputo and Miss Flora Wallace, of Cave Hill Farm were the guests of Mrs. J. W. Tracy Sunday.

The building of the new church is completed except the plastering and the subscription when will they be finished?

One of Mr. L. Harvie's hands got lost last week while returning from work. For further information inquire of Mr. L. Harvie.

Why can't Frankfort get up a tobacco show? Everybody claims to have the finest that ever grew out of the ground. What a Capital David.

The telegram to Mr. E. G. C. pleads to be moved to his old quarters. Put it on wheels, gentlemen. George has two good horses; he will haul it about for you.

We took a peep at Henry Spindler's outfit with him. His outfit is a hog sow with delapid and tobacco would make an old smoker dance with joy at the prospects before him.

It is certainly very gratifying to know that our article on cholera, published in your last issue, has been so universally commented by different parts of the country. We are glad to see that in some cases we thought were too flattering. But it brings up the question, is the filth, pestilence doctrine on the increase? Please, my mother, do you guard your children from its baneful influence? There is one thing certain, beyond a doubt, to make spiritual true, you must first prove the Bible to be a lie; can you do that?

NIX.

The Coleman Addition.

Mr. Silas Johnson and wife, of Virginia, are visiting their mother, Mrs. Castlemann, on Short street.

Mrs. Mag. Conway spent several days in the country last week, visiting the home of her brother-in-law, Mr. F. Conway.

There is an old lady living on Short street, who is in great need and should be looked after by the Christian people. She was around last week begging for one or two cent goods for patches and a little thread.

The old brick building known as the Jack Glare Mansard has been greatly repaired and improved in appearance.

Benson.

Mrs. Pryor is to build two tenement houses on her lot soon.

Mrs. Sarah Sheets has been on the sick list but is improving.

Misses B. Shantz and Biddle Parsons are visiting friends near Harlanland this week.

The Benson Valley Pike is progressing finely and will be ready to move in the county when completed.

Mr. Ed. Moore, Blue Bell, will begin building a house on the farm purchased of Judge Cradock in a few days.

Mr. Ed. Sheetz gave the young folks a dance last Monday night, at which all enjoyed themselves until a late hour.

The North Benson Church (Baptist) has commenced calling the Rev. T. Burton as their pastor and are looking for him daily. We congratulate the Church in their choice, as he is a good preacher and a Christian gentleman.

Les Gwynn was over on his usual visit last Sunday, but his Birlie had down. He then went to meeting of the North Benson Church, but there was no one there. Two disappointments in one day is too much for a young man to walk so far for.

EDUCATIONAL COLUMN.

GLEANINGS.

That school government which fails to lead pupils to see the errors in right conduct, even if it succeeds in impressing the mind, is kind administered. In those who, if they reason at all, think that character is built up by accretions from what is good, and seeing as it is an adaptation by force from within.

True education develops all the faculties of the human being harmoniously. It does not lead the pupil in the direction of what is needed, but rather in those who, others, but teaches him in all of them, physical, mental and moral, and makes of him a noble specimen of manhood, capable of enjoying the bodily inheritance and surrounding circumstances will permit. Intellect, genius is often associated with manhood, but in school the entire attention is given to the development of intellect.—John Thorpe.
